Product DescriptionNo Criminal Record Certificate in SUZHOU*Guide to Obtaining a Certificate of No Criminal Record in Suzhou

This guide is intended to assist foreign nationals in obtaining a Certificate of No Criminal Record in Suzhou, China. In other countries, this document is also known as a police certificate, police check, or police clearance.

Foreign nationals may need this certificate for various reasons, including immigration, employment, and more. Typically, the Certificate of No Criminal Record is not acceptable for these purposes until it has been notarized by a local notary office in China. Additionally, for use in certain countries, the certificate must be apostilled by China's Ministry of Foreign Affairs or authenticated by the embassy of the country where it is to be used. This guide covers the two primary steps: "STEP 1: Application for Certificate of No Criminal Record" and "STEP 2: Notarization of Certificate of No Criminal Record".

STEP 1: Application for Certificate of No Criminal RecordWhere to Apply?

A foreign national's application for a Certificate of No Criminal Record should be filed with a district branch office of the Division of Exit and Entry Administration of Suzhou Public Security Bureau. The district branch office must have jurisdiction over the district where you have lived and registered your residence, as recorded in your Temporary Residence Registration Form. For contact details of the exit-entry administration branch offices in each district of Suzhou, please visit China's National Immigration Administration (NIC) website and select "Suzhou".
